Please review the Dispute Resolution Policy framework before completing this form. Visit PrideToronto.com for more information.

Complaints that do not qualify for mediation will be referred to the arbitration process unless they can be resolved by Pride Toronto directly.

How would you like your complaint resolved?

Mediation

Arbitration

Please complete the following sections with as much detail as possible to assist the Dispute Resolution Officers to understand the nature of your complaint. You may submit up to four (4) additional pages of material or information with this document.

Which parade rule, march rule or relevant policy has been violated?

Outline the specific nature of the violation:

Identify the person(s) or group(s) that you believe are responsible for the violation:

Identify the nature of the corrective action you are seeking and/or the penalty you think should be imposed:

If Pride Toronto is unable to resolve your complaint directly and your complaint is directed to arbitration, which method of review are you requesting?

- The assignment of an individual Dispute Resolution Officer to review my complaint.
- The assignment of a panel of Dispute Resolution Officers to review my complaint. (Note: review by a panel is not subject to review)

You may nominate up to three Dispute Resolution Officers in the case of panel review. If you have selected this option, list your nominees below.

I/We attest that the information I have provided above is accurate and fairly represents my complaint. I have read the dispute resolution process and understand and agree that the findings from this process are final and binding in relation to my complaint against Pride Toronto proper. I understand that the next course of action if I am dissatisfied with the decision is to seek redress through other legal means.

I further understand that rules governing the Pride Toronto Dispute Resolution Process are bound by the Arbitrations Act, 1991 S.O. 1991, CHAPTER 17, 2009, c.33, Sched.2,s.5.
